

Behavioral Criteria for 4-H Events and Activities:

(Recommend distributing with health forms for trips/activities.)

To 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public: When attending, participating or acting on behalf of the 4-H program, all persons are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of social behavior, to respect rights of others, and to refrain from any conduct which may be injurious to the 4-H program. The following actions constitute misconduct for which persons may be subject to disciplinary penalties and/or dismissal from the program:

- a) Dishonesty in connection with any 4-H activity by cheating or knowingly furnishing false information.
- b) Alteration or unauthorized use of 4-H records.
- c) Obstruction or disruption of any 4-H activity or aiding and encouraging other persons to engage in such conduct.
- d) Failure to comply or aiding or encouraging other persons not to comply with specific terms and conditions of a given project, contest, or activity.
- e) Failure to comply with directions of 4-H officials acting in the proper performance of their duties.
- f) Inhumane treatment of 4-H animals.

There are many opportunities for 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public to participate in 4-H events and activities. When involved in such experiences, members, volunteers, parents and the public are expected to follow all rules and regulations as outlined by those responsible for the specific program or activity. In all such 4-H activities, the following constitute a violation of behavioral expectations:

- 1) Possession or use of fire crackers, gun powder, firearms, chemicals or other materials that can be used to create an explosive mixture.
- 2) Misuse of fire equipment or sounding a false fire alarm.
- 3) Having a guest of the opposite sex in your sleeping quarters.
- 4) Physical or verbal abuse of any person or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person.
- 5) Theft of or malicious damage to property.
- 6) Possession, use, or distribution of alcohol, illegal drugs, tobacco and tobacco-like products, or other dangerous substances.
- 7) Lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct.
- 8) Unauthorized entry, use or occupancy of any facility.
- 9) Any conduct which threatens or interferes with maintenance of appropriate order and discipline or invades the rights of others.

When violations occur at out-of-county, district, area, and/or state and/or national 4-H events, the following procedures will be followed.

- (a) The parents/legal guardians will be contacted to arrange transportation home for the violator(s) and
- (b) The local extension educator will be notified.

I verify that I am a 4-H member, I have read and will abide by the rules and behavioral expectations, set by the Indiana 4-H program and Huntington County 4-H or I will forfeit my right to stay in the program. Both signatures are required.
